I qualify for this initial new home delivered subscription offer today because I have not had an active Star Tribune home delivery subscription in the last 30 days. I understand that delivery and billing will continue beyond the initial order period unless I contact Star Tribune by calling (612) 673-4343. Rate may change after introductory offer period. This offer is limited to households within designated home delivery areas.

If my new print subscription does not normally include a Thursday print edition, the Thursday editions prior to Presidents' Day, Mother's Day, Memorial Day and Labor Day are included in my subscription at the rate of $1 each. The Thanksgiving Day newspaper will also be included at a rate of $2. These charges will be reflected in my account and will accelerate the expiration date of my subscription. I can opt out of these additional days of delivery by contacting Star Tribune customer service at (612) 673-4343.

If I have a previous inactive subscription with the Star Tribune, with a past due balance owing, I authorize Star Tribune to charge me for past due amount in addition to paying for the current subscription purchased today.
